BEFORE THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE BOARD OF REGISTRATION FOR PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS

WV PE BOARD

IN RE:           MICHAEL W. STASCH
                  A.M. DESIGN & ENGINEERING, LLC

C2014-12

CONSENT ORDER

Comes now the West Virginia State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers by Edward L. Robinson, P.E., its President, (hereinafter "the Board") for the purpose of agreeing to resolve a Complaint seeking disciplinary action against Michael W. Stasch (hereinafter "Respondent Stasch") and A.M. Design & Engineering, LLC (hereinafter "Respondent Firm") (together, "Respondents"). As reflected in this document, the parties have reached an agreement concerning the proper disposition of this matter, and the Board, upon approval of such agreement, does hereby FIND the following:

1. The matters set forth herein are within the jurisdiction of the Board, which is the state entity with the power and duty to regulate the practice of engineering in the State of West Virginia.
2. Respondent Stasch is a licensed professional engineer in the State of Maryland, but has never held a professional engineering license in West Virginia.
3. Respondent Firm is organized under the laws of the State of Maryland and is owned by Respondent Stasch.
4. Respondent Firm's website, discovered during routine investigation by the Board, represented that Respondent Firm performed "residential structural engineering consulting" and was serving several states, including West Virginia.
5. The Board initiated complaint number C2014-12 at its regular meeting on March 25, 2014, which was filed and served on April 9, 2014.

6. Service was via electronic transmission only, since the website included no contact information and the Board's efforts to contact Respondents prior to the service of the complaint were unsuccessful.
7. The Board allowed Respondent Stasch's email of May 6, 2014, to be considered a response to the Complaint, after which Respondents agreed to amend the complaint to include Respondent Stasch.
8. Respondent Stasch admits that he offered engineering services in West Virginia without a professional engineering license, in violation of West Virginia engineering law.
9. Respondent Firm admits that it offered engineering services in West Virginia in violation of West Virginia engineering law since it did not have nor qualify for a COA because it had no engineer licensed in West Virginia who could act as Respondent Firm's engineer in responsible charge.
10. Respondents state they have never done any work in West Virginia.
11. The Board has taken into account the following factors in reaching this settlement: the Board's inability to contact Respondents prior to the initiation of the Complaint; Respondents' cooperation in the prompt resolution of this Complaint, which included their immediate modification of their website to exclude offers of engineering in West Virginia; and the nature of the violation, which did not pose a harm to the public.
12. The Board, in its discretion, will not assess administrative costs although it is within its power to assess such costs and administrative costs were incurred in the investigation, initiation and resolution of this complaint.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

15. It is unlawful for any person to practice or offer to practice engineering, as defined by West Virginia Code § 30-13-1 et seq., in the State of West Virginia unless that person is duly registered under the provisions of West Virginia engineering law. W. Va. Code § 30-13-2.
16. West Virginia engineering law allows a firm to practice or offer to practice engineering only upon the issuance of a certificate of authorization by the Board. W. Va. Code § 30-13-17.

18. Practicing or offering to practice engineering, as defined by W. Va. § 30-13-1 et seq., without a license is an action that may subject a person to discipline by the Board, including a civil penalty up to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00). W. Va. Code R. § 7-1-15.1.
19. Practicing or offering to practice engineering, as defined by W. Va. § 30-13-1 et seq., without a valid Certificate of Authorization is an action that may subject a firm to discipline by the Board, including a civil penalty up to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00). W. Va. Code R. § 7-1-15.1.
20. In determining the amount of a civil penalty to be assessed, the Board may consider such factors as the circumstances leading to the violation; the nature and severity of the violation and the risk of harm to the public; the extent to which the cited person or firm has cooperated with the Board and the Board's investigation; and other matters as may be appropriate. W. Va. Code R. § 7-1-15.4.

21. The assessment of administrative costs is within the Board's sole discretion. W. Va. Code § 30-13-21(d) (4) and W. Va. Code R § 7-1-14.4.
